Davis Indicted for Treason

On the 26th of May the Grand Jury of the District of Columbia found a bill of indictment against Jefferson Davis and John Cabell Breckinridge for high treason. It is understood that the trial will take place in Washington before the Circuit Court. The Court is composed of Chief Justices D. K. Carter, formerly of Ohio, Judge Olin, formerly of New York, and Judge Wiley of this District. The overt act was the raid in July last within the District of Columbia and the jurisdiction of this Court, the killing of citizens and the destruction of property, Breckinridge being present in person and Jefferson Davis constructively. District Attorney Carrington announced the fact in the Court and asked for a bench warrant in the case of Breckinridge, who is still at large. He also asked that such steps may be taken as will bring Davis before the Court for trial. The indictment sets forth that Jefferson Davis, late of the country of Henrico, in the State of Virginia, Yeoman, being an inhabitant of and resident within the said United States of America, and owing allegiance and fidelity to the said United States of America, not having the fear of God before his eyes, nor weighing the duty of his said allegiance, but being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, wickedly devising and disturbing the peace and tranquility of the United States, did move and excite rebellion in the year 1864, being the leader and the commander-in-chief of the insurgents, who under his direction did unlawfully and traitorously assemble, to the number of 20,000 and upward, and march in a warlike manner—that is to say, with drums and colors, with cannon, muskets, carbines, swords, cutlasses and other warlike weapons, as well offensive as defensive, from the said County of Henrico in the State of Virginia, aforesaid, to the County of Washington aforesaid, in the District of Columbia aforesaid, and levying war against the United States Government by assaulting, attacking, and making war upon a certain fort of the said United States of America, called Fort Stevens, the said fort then and there being used and occupied by the military forces of the said United States of America, and did then and there, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the county and in the district last aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, with force and arms, wickedly and traitorously, by means of the said cannon, muskets, carbines, pistols, swords, cutlasses, powder, shot, shells, cartridges, percussion caps and other warlike weapons, so furnished, provided and supplied by the said Jefferson Davis, as aforesaid, oppose, attack, assault and make war upon the troops and military forces of the said United States of America then and there assembled; and did kill and wound a large number, to wit, the number of five hundred and upward of the said troops of the said United States of America, and persons then and there, to-wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, and in the county and district afor[illegible], and within the jurisdiction of this court, being a part of the military forces of said United States of America, and the jury say that he, the said Jefferson Davis, with the said insurgents so traitorously assembled, armed and arrayed as aforesaid, most wickedly, maliciously and traitorously did [illegible] prepare, levy and carry on war [illegible] the United States of America, for the [illegible] of the Government of the said United States of America, contrary to the duty of his said allegiance and fidelity, [illegible] and Government of this United States of America, and against the form of the statute of the said United States of America, in such case made and provided. On the back of the indictment [illegible] following indorsement: [illegible]

United States vs Jefferson Davis. [illegible] Witnesses—Francis P. Blair, Sr., John R. Claggett, General M. D. Hardin, Thomas T. Maury, M. D., George E. Kirk, John H. McElhaney.

THE GREAT CANYON OF THE COLORADO.—A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, who had sailed up the Colorado river several hundred miles, writing from La Paz, Arizona, on May 20th remarks:

The Great Canyon of the Colorado is the sole remaining unexplored geographical wonder of the world, the myth, as it were, around which cluster all traditions and stories of the mountain men and the Indians. I have seen men who said they had been through it, and told how their hair [illegible] on end as the mid-day darkness closed around them and the terrible war of rushing waters, echoed and re-echoed in the dizzy heights of the six thousand feet of mountain wall that closed in the cavernous [illegible] of this cavernous gorge. [illegible] I have seen Indians who talk of [illegible] it on cottonwood logs. You may believe them if you will, I can't! Lieut. Ives saw the great canyon at the mouth of Diamond Creek, or rather he saw a canyon, into which Diamond Creek [illegible] has given a geographical sketch of the stratification of the walls there. I have seen persons recently who followed Yampa Creek, a branch parallel to Diamond river, to a canyon; at both of these points the walls are thousands of feet high, and so nearly perpendicular that the sky seems a thread overhead. What is the great canyon? It is the bursting through the great table land south of the basin of the waters imprisoned there for long centuries in a huge lake. Probably for 20 miles the Colorado cut this vast mesa with canyon walls, averaging from 3,000 to 4,000 feet high. It may not be continuous canyon, indeed it is not, if by continuous one means unbroken walls; but if we use canyon in the sense it is used elsewhere on the river, as the whole passage of a range of hills or mountains, then the great canyon may be 200 miles long. It has only been seen thus following down the seams made in the vast table land by some of its tributaries; it cannot be followed on the bank, for these seams are impassable; it cannot be followed, on account of the current, up the river. Other tributaries may yet be followed down to it, and a more thorough knowledge obtained of the canyon. It was the opinion of Dr. Newberry, of the Ives expedition, that there was a strong probability of finding diamonds here, and Gov. Gilpin of Colorado arrived at the same conclusion from geographical and geological deductions, without having been here.

A PLEA FOR ALEX. H. STEPHENS.—The question of the whereabouts of Alexander H. Stephens is settled by his arrival at Fortress Monroe, in company with his chief traitor, Jeff Davis. Stephens was arrested on his farm, at Crawfordsville, near Augusta, by our cavalry, so there is no more succession to the so called Confederacy whatever. Davis, Stephens and Hunter are all in custody. The Cincinnati Times makes a plea in behalf of Stephens. It says, he refused to make any addresses after the failure at Fortress Monroe. To Governor Brown who urged him to do so, he is reported to have replied, "I have tried to advise the people in time of danger, and they would not heed me. I urged them against the war, and and they went into it. I followed them against my judgment and in obedience to merely natural instincts and sympathies. They made use of my name so far as it served their purposes, and have denounced me ever since as a traitor. I have neither had the confidence or attention of the Government in which I was made to figure as the second officer. The cause is now hopeless. It is no use spilling any more blood, or imbruing our hands in this wholesale murder. Yet, if I were to say this it would do no good, and, perhaps cost me my life." We have conversed with a gentleman who saw Mr. Stephens after the surrender of Lee's army. Our informant asked him what he meant to do, and he replied, "Nothing!" He further said that his purpose was to stay where he was and hold himself subject to the Government of the United States. The laws of treason, he continued, were plain enough, and he understood them perfectly. Thus far the Times. It [illegible] relief, however, to Stephens' folly that he reiterated his devotion to the Confederacy on many an occasion.—Cor. Alta.

RAILROAD IN MEXICO.—The entire length of the new railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico will be three hundred and fifteen miles; the highest summit level eight thousand three hundred feet above the level of the sea, being double the hight of any other railroad in the world. It will have an incline of twenty three miles and a grade of two hundred and twelve feet per mile, on which the curves have a radius of five hundred feet. There is one bridge to be built two hundred and ninety feet high.

Among Mr. Lincoln's papers has been found a package of letters marked in his own hand writing "Assassination Letters."

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 18[illegible]

Reunion and Peace

The great day of blessed peace is come. It [illegible] beaming in all the lustre of [illegible] glory upon the chosen land of Freedom. The people erewhile deep in [illegible] but never despairing, often disappointed but always of indomitable faith, behold now [illegible] reward. Contemplate for a moment the felicity that waits on the bliss [illegible] that are now begun, and the [illegible] with shouts of "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Oh country! once distracted by the horrors of war, but now blessed by the resplendent advent of peace, your dangers have been great, your trials have been very grievous, [illegible] been full of affliction, but [illegible] some your triumph is complete, the [illegible] out [illegible] gives way to the day [illegible] and [illegible] and mourning is turned to joy.

If ever during past years the people of proud noble [illegible] but now redeemed America have been forgetful of or failed to honor the illustrious day of July, they cannot [illegible] it is as gladly now. On this occasion a new meaning is added to our desire to magnify our country's name and extol its glory. Through the [illegible] frequent humiliation repeated [illegible] appointed hope our country has [illegible] and now enthroned in a brighter [illegible] of glory, it sits in majestic grandeur among the nations chiefest of them all.

To day we do not merely celebrate our Nation's Independence; we also unite our voices in a universal exclamation of joy and praise because of our nation's deliverance. Every true citizen of proud and free America, to-day will find a tongue to give utterance to his heart's exultation. On this occasion, cold and formal patriotism is melted into rapturous enthusiasm by the ardor of joy. Let no voice that can utter "Liberty and Union" be still. Throughout our whole land may no heart be incapable of gratitude to Him who hath given us the victory. And may we not in view of our triumph, exalt ourselves, but in the midst of these imposing demonstrations may the silent language of every enraptured heart be, "Not unto us, but unto Thy name."

TREASON.—The Copperhead papers are still terribly exercised about the treason of John Brown. If there are any who doubt that his conduct was treasonable and that he justly suffered death, we are not one of them. But is he the only traitor in our annals? Are not the vastly more powerful conspirators of the late rebellion as guilty as he? Was John Brown a traitor and is John C Breckinridge not? The Eugene Review argues that the leaders of the great rebellion are not traitors because they owed a paramount allegiance to their States, and did no more than to obey the only true sovereign power. Did Breckinridge, Clark Jackson, Sterling Price and the pirate Semmes obey the mandate of their respective States? Are they guilty of treason? Are Davis and Benjamin, men who were Senators of the United States, and who while under oath to protect and defend its Constitution, busily engaged in creating a power within its jurisdiction whose aim was to subvert it, traitors or patriots? Will the Review let us know whether there have been other traitors in the country since the days of John Brown?

SAVE SHERMAN!—The New York News, a paper whose infamous disloyalty has not been eclipsed even by that of the Richmond Examiner, couples the illustrious name of Sherman with the dishonored name of Lee, and ascribes to them an equal glory. A grateful people will rescue the honoured name of Sherman from the pollution of the comparison. We can forgive the misguided people of the South; these Northern traitors who aided in the attempt to destroy the Government, and who now defame its preservers, never. Hear the News:

Smiling in the blue empyrean above the Egyptian darkness of the horrible past two names—those of Robert E. Lee and William T. Sherman—are written in the radiance of imperishable glory. While the name of Lee serves to light the Stygian night of those horrors with the splendor of his intellect, Sherman serves to illuminate it with the effulgence of his genius.

THE ORDINANCE OF BLOOD.—The original ordinance of secession of the State of Virginia is said to be now in the possession of a citizen of Philadelphia. In the early part of the struggle it was intrusted to a German printer of Richmond to be lithographed, but for want of material the work was not done and the parchment remained in the hands until after the capture of the city, when it was given by the printer to his Philadelphia friend. The names of eighty distinguished rebels are affixed to the document. This bit of parchment is the instrument which invoked the terror, the woe—the deluge of tears and blood which every portion of the State has witnessed. Many of its authors fill traitors' graves, the rest are under the ban of a vindicated law.

THE SOLDIERS OF THE REPUBLIC.—To them who have [illegible] the battle, the nation feels itself indebted for the triumph which permits us all [illegible] in the celebration of [illegible] day. [illegible] sold or of the Republic and [illegible] in the work of the reunion of these S[illegible], is the highest attainable honor. Our noble soldiers will celebrate this day with an enthusiasm such as others may not know. On this great day they are at their homes among the people, of whom they are a part, and the pageantry they witness now is other than that which they saw on the fourteen [illegible] which have preceded this. Every [illegible] and district has its heroes. They will be reverently honored as long as gratitude lives in the hearts of men.

FLOUR.—In the San Francisco market flour has suddenly declined to [illegible] dollars per barrel. The speculators there say that it will go still lower. Of course it will if they can continue to control the market. A little while ago they desired to sell and flour was held at sixteen dollars; they want now to buy and would be delighted until they succeed in bringing it down to four. When they have bought up all the [illegible] and grain in the country, they will [illegible] commodities up again at once to starvation prices. This is no doubt their plan. Now the prices are so low, Oregon [illegible] breadstuffs at home. A few weeks [illegible] time to have [illegible].

MILITARY AID.—We understand that [illegible] Maury has [illegible] Captain Mart[illegible] company of cavalry to Auburn [illegible] these [illegible] will be sent to the place where they [illegible] greatly needed.

The Eastern papers announce that General Thomas has been [illegible] mand.

The Coeur d'Alene Country

[illegible] Mesplie [illegible] World with [illegible] the Coeur d'Alene Country.

The Coeur d'Alene country is situated in Idaho Territory, on the west side of the Rocky Mountains, [illegible] miles from Walla Walla. It is bounded on the North by the Kootenai country, on the south by the [illegible] mines, on the east by Fort Benton, and on the west by the Blue Mountains.

[illegible]

[illegible] was founded at an eighty years ago. [illegible] in this region by the [illegible]. The plan began to assume [illegible] on the arrival of Rev. Father De Smet, at this region in the year 1840. After crossing the Rocky Mountains, he established [illegible] among the Flathead Indians [illegible] Bitter Root Valley [illegible] and [illegible] establishing missions among the [illegible] Coeur d'Alene [illegible] Indians [illegible]. But these projects were not [illegible], owing to the small number [illegible] that year was truly [illegible] in the history of the Catholic missions in this western country. Four [illegible] priests arrived [illegible] were detailed [illegible] the whites and Indians [illegible] Archbishop Blanchet [illegible] by the Archbishop [illegible] of Father De Smet in the [illegible]. It is from this point [illegible].

The [illegible] mission was placed in charge of [illegible] Father Gazzoli in the month of September 1847. Father Gazzoli has continued [illegible] and must [illegible] as the mission [illegible]. In regard to [illegible] the discovery of rich mines in the [illegible] of the Coeur d'Alene mission there are many things attributed to Father De Smet and other priests which are without foundation, and which I desire to correct. The [illegible] attributed to him by current report had no particular reference to the Coeur d'Alene country, any more than to any other portion of the surrounding region. He has never said that there were rich mines near the mission, and in fact it will not well have [illegible] been the case. He has never remained at the mission longer than a month at any one time. What Father De Smet has said, as a missionary and explorer of the country, referred to that entire region lying between the Rocky Mountains and the Blue mountains, and was simply to the effect that the country appeared to [illegible] valuable minerals including gold, silver, platina &c. His expressions are as follows:

It the civilized world knew of the immense treasures contained in this region, they would emigrate by millions." We cannot conclude that Father De Smet intended to allude to that point particularly. He undoubtedly referred in a general way to those places which have since been discovered, or may be hereafter, as California, Southern Oregon, Boise Basin, Cariboo, &c., all lying on the western slope of the Rocky mountains. These observations are founded on a knowledge of his literary works and from information derived from him during a long and intimate acquaintance. Father De Smet has thrown much light upon the mineral resources of this country in general, and the public owe him some gratitude for the labor expended in doing so, and ought not to make him say what he has never said, or intended to say.

Now let us return to the Coeur d'Alene mines which at this time occupy so much public attention, proclaimed by the newspaper at Lewiston—the wealth of which appears in the public estimation to be based upon the authority of Father De Smet, which as I have shown, was unfounded.

Rev. Father Gazzoly has been in charge of that post for eighteen years, and is familiar with the country. He has often remarked that the country lying between Oro Fino on the South, the Coeur d'Alene mission on the north, and between Lewiston on the west, and Fort Benton on the east must be rich in gold, silver and platina. He arrived at that conclusion by receiving specimens at various times from the Indians; but he has never made any personal examination of any given locality.

I have known different practical miners who have prospected for weeks all over the country described, who reported that they discovered only a few colors, and they say that even should gold be found there in paying quantities, the scarcity of water would be a serious impediment, as water would have to be brought a hundred miles through a very mountainous country. These prospectors come to the conclusion that it would never become a paying mining district.

The foregoing remarks are made without any other motive than that of being useful to the public in general, and if they can be of any service in allaying the present prospecting excitement, I shall be fully rewarded.

FATHER T. MESPLIE.

Idaho City, June 23, 1865.

CALIFORNIA PETROLEUM.—Parties in California are going steadily forward in making preparations to refine the crude petroleum that is being discovered in that State. This will be a source of wealth to California, or rather to certain parties there, but if the San Francisco money holders [illegible] monopolizing the whole oil business of the State as they have everything else, oil produced at home will be no cheaper than the imported article. In that event it will make no difference [illegible] where our oil comes from, its cost will be the same.

WOOL IN SOUTHERN OREGON.—Sheep husbandry in Southern Oregon is [illegible] receiving considerably more attention than formerly. Some of the [illegible] there are increasing their [illegible] the varieties of their sheep. [illegible] from Jackson county this year.

The people in that part of the State are making efforts to build a Woolen Factory. We do not know what success will attend them. That section ought to have a Factory, and is abundantly able to sustain it and keep it at work.

COMPETITION AMONG THE COURTS.—It is said that Jeff Davis has been indicted at Alexandria, Wheeling, Baltimore and Washington. It seems that there is very [illegible] competition for the privilege of hanging him. Of course Jeff will be tried at Washington, but the fact of so many indictments being found [illegible] extraordinary [illegible] the rebel [illegible].

THE COLFAX PARTY.—A telegram from A. B. The party [illegible] as far as Walla Walla [illegible] at the [illegible]. Our citizens will [illegible] them a hearty reception.

AN ENGLISH PACIFIC RAILROAD.—It appears that an English company is intent on constructing a railroad to the Pacific through British territory. A recent Montreal paper says:

THE DROUTH.—[illegible] in the southern part of the State announce that [illegible] are suffering [illegible] Times says [illegible].

[illegible] complained that we are [illegible] recognition of those rights [illegible] were swayed by [illegible] simply by considerations affecting our interest and policy. By the fate of the [illegible] men of Lee and Johnston [illegible] Virginia, North and South Carolina [illegible] Florida are brought under [illegible] United States authority. These States [illegible] seaports on the Atlantic [illegible] field yet in arms are [illegible] that if we delay to withdraw the recognition of belligerency [illegible] might with equal propriety grant [illegible] to Baron [illegible] the New Zealand [illegible] Southern government is extinct [illegible] Mr. Davis with his plunder is endeavoring to reach Mexico that he may take passage [illegible] even delay to write our [illegible] trust therefore Sir George Grey will be able to [illegible] in answer to Mr. White to-night that the Queen of England is about [illegible] mation instead withdrawing the [illegible] gives the Shenandoah and the St[illegible] permission to enter British ports.—[illegible]

THE ANXIOUS SEAT IN MEXICO.—We do not know that Maximilian really repents of the error of having accepted the post of sovereign in a country of which he knows nothing, and among whose people his real standing must necessarily be that of an alien. But it does appear that he occupies "an anxious seat" at the present time. The news says he expects more troops from Europe. He has been promised more troops. But his European patrons fail to come up to time. And the Republican soldiers, regular and irregular, are swarming everywhere. There are three European sovereigns [illegible] first class and one third or fourth class—concerned in the business of bolstering up the rickety throne in Mexico. There is Maximilian's father [illegible] the Emperor of Austria. There is Napoleon III of France. And there is the astute but comparatively powerless father in law of the unfortunate Prince—Leopold of Belgium. Neither one of these, nor all of them together, seem to be in a position to render the material aid which the situation calls for. Before the year closes the opinion of Europe will probably be back to the point where it was seven years ago—when some of the [illegible] Powers were eager to see a United States [illegible] established over the whole luckless republic, and a chance given to the honest citizens of Mexico to choose their own rulers. It is [illegible] running very fast without our interference.—N. Y. Times.

GENERAL STONE.—It will be recollected that after the case at Ball's Bluff [illegible] the death of General Baker, General Stone was imprisoned by order of the War Department. He was released without trial. The cause of imprisonment or release was never known to the public. At the time when McClellan was advancing up the Peninsula to Richmond, a man of this city, who doubtless sympathized with the secessionists, and who seemed to know all their intentions as well as those of McClellan, made this remark to the writer: "Mark what I say—as soon as McClellan experiences a reverse, a General Stone will be released without a trial, but no explanation will be given of the cause of his imprisonment." "Why so?" was asked. "Because he was imprisoned to cover up a mistake of wrong [illegible] by McClellan in the Bull's Bluff affair." The day after McClellan commenced his retreat from Harrison's Landing, Stone was released from confinement unconditionally, and no explanation as to the cause of his imprisonment was ever made. Subsequently he was placed in [illegible] military position. He resigned shortly after Banks' Red River failure [illegible] comments on his conduct in that expedition. S. F. Call.

VALLANDIGHAM.—In the State of Ohio [illegible] dutch has been found by [illegible] thizer with treason than [illegible] He has written a letter [illegible] wrong about the war for the [illegible] that slavery is destroyed and the [illegible] sees at present no reason why [illegible] should not give a cordial support [illegible] the country under the Constitution [illegible] that without slavery the Southern States will [illegible].

[illegible] seems that Vallandigham [illegible] Abolitionist. What [illegible] papers going to do now? [illegible] desire a return of the [illegible] plantation manners [illegible] was a crushing argument to call [illegible] Abolitionist? Poor souls! will they never learn that civilization is on [illegible].

CONFLICTING REPORTS.—[illegible] Davis [illegible] is telegraphed that [illegible] Monroe states that Jeff Davis has [illegible] manacled with a chain [illegible] three feet long. He [illegible] who [illegible] guards [illegible] his [illegible] Why should we iron [illegible] grand larceny convict [illegible] Jeff Davis [illegible] thousands of friends [illegible] effect his escape [illegible] treason must be [illegible] can disgrace Jeff Davis the [illegible] sentimentality for the wretch [illegible] Call.

STOLEN [illegible] few miles above Camp [illegible] Several [illegible] has [illegible] It seems that a line [illegible] there [illegible] has not been [illegible] of it was melted [illegible].

Says the Washington [illegible] ment that Booth made $20,000 a year [illegible] fession every well informed man knows to be false. His engagements were almost [illegible] failure, and latterly [illegible] dared [illegible] present him [illegible] his profession.

National Anthem—"God of the Free." 1865.

Air—Old Hundred.

By William Ross Wallace.

I.

God of the Free! upon Thy breath
Our flag is stored for right unfurled,
As broad and brave as when its stars
First lit the darkness of the world.

II.

For this still its folds shall stream,
For honor all its glories burn,
Where truth, religion, valor guard
The patriot's sword and martyr's urn.

III.

No tyrant's impious step is here,
No lust of power on nations rolled—
Our flag for friends a starry sky,
For foes a storm in every fold.

IV.

No slavery shall blast our clime,
But evermore, on wave and sod,
Only one master's shadow fall—
The golden shadow cast by God.

V.

O thus we'll keep the nation's life,
Nor fear the bolt by despots hurled,
The blood of all the world is here,
And they who strike us strike the world!

VI.

Then still roar high thine oak, O North!
O South, wave answer with thy palm!
All in our Union's heritage
Together sing the nation's psalm!

Rebel Terms.—Mr. Stephens, Mr. Reagan, General Lee, and a multitude of American citizens, who have served the rebellion in a civil or military capacity, are, according to the correspondents of the press, very lavish of statements of the conditions upon which the Union may be restored. One gentleman expresses his readiness to resume the status of a citizen immediately, provided the Government is properly lenient. Slavery is perhaps gone, says another, but emancipation and extension of the suffrage must not be pressed. We have not yet seen any report of the terms which Jefferson Davis is disposed to accord to the United States. But as he declared that he would rather fraternize with hyenas than Yankees, he will probably be very strict, if not severe with us.

That they have committed the most stupendous crimes—that, in order to overthrow an equal popular government, they have starved and frozen thousands of innocent men—that they have hung and massacred in all cruel ways hundreds of their own immediate fellow-citizens—that they have striven to destroy civil society itself, in order to perpetuate the unimaginable wrong of human slavery—that the letter of Alston shows Davis, their leader, to have been directly cognizant of a plan to murder Mr. Lincoln and other high officers, which he deliberately referred for consideration—all of these appalling crimes, for which many of them will be tried for their lives, seem entirely to escape the attention of these airy gentlemen who kindly advise the Government in this emergency of victory.

It seems to us that Mr. Stephens and his friends would do wisely to imitate the silence of Jefferson Davis.—Harpers' Weekly.

New Diggings.—Miners have been at work for some time past on Grand Ronde river, and lately have discovered a new and extensive field of placer diggings. The gold is of excellent quality, being worth $17 and over per ounce. A call is made for 100 men to work in these diggings, and good wages, $5 per day, are promised. The road now traveled to these mines is by the way of the Daley route, but parties who are well acquainted with the country and have traveled over the route they describe, say that a shorter route is found by crossing at the new bridge on the Umatilla river, two miles below the Twelve Mile House, and strike for the forks of Butter Creek, following up between the forks through Camas Prairie and over to the Sheep Ranch, and from there to the mines, a distance of eight miles. We judge the distance to be not over 50 miles from Umatilla. Two pack-trains left town yesterday for these mines, loaded with supplies and will take the route last spoken of. The country around is said to be but partially prospected, and affords abundant room for further discoveries, and those acquainted with the locality express themselves in strong terms as to its probable value, and predict a field for mining operations extensive and enduring. Travel from this new camp will be regular to our city, and as the news reaches us, we shall lay it before our readers.—Umatilla Advertiser.

American [illegible] Association.—The Rev. Wm. P. Brown, of Newark, N. J., who is on a tour for health to the Pacific Coast, has during his brief stay in Oregon spoken several times upon the [illegible] work among the Freedmen, as conducted by the American Missionary Association. This Society is undenominational in character, and aims not only to promote the temporal and intellectual but most of all to the spiritual interests of the Freedmen. It is a permanent Society and will expend about $200,000 this year in furtherance of its work. It has two hundred missionary teachers in the field, and a large number of missionaries who devote themselves chiefly to preaching the Gospel. It is hoped that the people of Oregon will contribute liberally to the Society in aid of this benevolent work. One hundred dollars in coin, with the aid which Government renders, will support a teacher for a whole year. Thirty dollars constitutes one a member of the Society for life.

	COIN.	CURRENCY.
From Congregational Church, Salem	$17 85
" M. E. " "	19 15	$2 00
" Congregational Ch, Oregon City	20 20	2 00

Total	$319 55	$26 00

Any further contributions may be sent to the Treasurer of the American Missionary Association, 61 John street, New York, or placed in the hands of D. W. Williams, Esq., of this city, who will forward it to the Society.

The Secret of General Butler's Removal.—Many people suppose that the removal of General Butler was caused by his failure to take Fort Fisher. That is not so. The true reason is this: When General Butler was in command in this city, previous to the last Presidential election, a certain article appeared in the New York Herald which the General did not like. As soon as he read it, he at once dispatched one of his Aids to the Herald office to summon the managing editor (Hudson) to appear at his headquarters. Hudson obeyed the summons, and on appearing before the high military official he was informed that the Herald must retract the offensive article, or he (Gen. Butler) would suppress the paper. Gen. Butler was not aware when he made this threat that the relations of Bennett, the responsible editor of the Herald, with the Administration were of a very friendly and confidential character, and, therefore, in making this ebullition of his "brief authority" he "put his foot in it." Bennett, of course, never forgave him; but, on the contrary, managed to have him removed just as soon as the General's superiors could assign a reason that would seemingly justify his decapitation. General Butler is himself aware of this now, although he did not know the secret of his removal at the time it took place. The offer of the French Mission by our late President to James Gordon Bennett and the indorsement of the offer by Horace Greeley must have opened General Butler's eyes. He will probably let the newspapers alone hereafter.—New York Ledger.

Have you a Flattering Tale?—But never even anticipated to divine a preparation for the toilet, as that delightful preparation, "Sozodont." Grover & Baker's Sewing-Machine Awards.—We find the following mention of the work performed on the Grover & Baker Machine in The Queen, the Lady's Newspaper and Fashion Chronicle, published in London:—"Messrs Grover & Baker have something as novel as it is beautiful in sewing-machine work—namely, the most exquisite work in raised embroidery in colored silks. One of the specimens which we have seen measures about a foot square, and represents a bunch of pansies and leaves, worked in natural colors, on a cashmere ground. Some roses delicately shaded in pink silk formed another group, and a pair of shoes, worked in black velvet, with a variety of colors, were even more curious and beautiful than the other specimens. Together with these, were some samples of the very finest tuck running in cambric, book muslin, and satin gauze. An embroidered pattern, with miniature tucks, on an infant's flannel, was exquisite. The stitch, which forms this silk embroidery, is peculiar to the machine." While the "Grover & Baker" is justly celebrated for its ability to perform embroidery and other beautiful fancy work, the same machine, it must be remembered, is also capable of executing all kinds of family sewing, as well as operating on the heaviest materials possible for a needle to pass through. It is this combination of qualities that has earned this machine its high reputation among all classes.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When in the course of human events [illegible] [illegible]

We hold these truths to be self-evident [illegible] that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that [illegible] governments are instituted among men [illegible] just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and, when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation [illegible] [illegible] bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners, refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] tried for [illegible] [illegible] English laws [illegible] establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies.

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the forms of our governments.

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions, we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them as we hold the rest of mankind—enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare that these united colonies are and of right ought to be FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

KENTUCKY.—The slavery question in Kentucky is likely to be practically if not legally settled by the disappearance of the contraband altogether. Tens of thousands have gone to other States and of those who are left the greater portion of able bodied men are enlisting in our armies. By enlistment their families become free. [illegible] it is not improbable that if the [illegible] citizens of Kentucky should resolve [illegible] [illegible] hold on to the [illegible] institution they will be able to [illegible] and need [illegible] will serve them right.

Gen. Ord, commanding the Department of Virginia, has issued an order at Richmond calling the attention of relatives and friends of the dead officers and men who are buried in Virginia to the fact that attempts to remove the remains of such officers and men, when they had been buried less than a year, have in every instance proved impracticable from the condition in which they were found.

Dr. J. A. Davis of Chicago, a prominent physician, states that a rebel surgeon who had for four years occupied the position of Assistant Medical Director of the Army of Northern Virginia, told him that Union prisoners in the rebel hospitals had been vaccinated with venereal matter, and that this accounted for the frightful sores on the bodies of so many of them.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

ASTHMA, CROUP,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing, and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

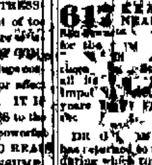
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL. Established in 1854, for the [illegible] of Sexual [illegible] such as Gonorrhea, [illegible] Stricture, Syphilis [illegible] all its [illegible] Seminal Weakness, [illegible] [illegible]

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure [illegible] has returned to this State, after [illegible] year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated [illegible] are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, Camb Place, Paddington; Lock, Harrow road; St. Luke's, Old street; University, Gower street; Brompton Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agar street; Strand; London, Whitechapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College [illegible]

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited [illegible] Acton of London, Parker of [illegible], England, and Ricord of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world and whose authority is acknowledged as being the highest in the treatment of [illegible]

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from these their new mode of treatment which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Disease,

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid [illegible] [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation, thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible [illegible] [illegible] that they are cured [illegible] before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate [illegible] [illegible] mercury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] to those who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] pretended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and their places. Be not deceived and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved [illegible] [illegible] practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained at all apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is infallible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have [illegible] promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] [illegible] to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use by [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former system of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world:

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and, when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature—a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasion on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the state remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the danger of invasion from without and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these states; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has created a multitude of new offices and sent hither swarms of officers, to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws—giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offences:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us, and has endeavored to bring, on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions, we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts, by their Legislature, to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them, by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind—enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in general Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare that these United colonies are, and of right ought to be, FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And, for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

KENTUCKY.—The slavery question in Kentucky is likely to be practically if not legally settled by the disappearance of the contraband altogether. Tens of thousands have gone to other States, and of those who are left the greater portion of able-bodied men are enlisting in our armies. By such enlistment their families become free. So it is not improbable that if the white citizens of Kentucky should resolve in the coming election to hold on to the institution [illegible] they will be able [illegible] and only the decrepit and used up old paupers for their pains. And it will serve them right.

Gen. Ord, commanding the Department of Virginia, has issued an order at Richmond calling the attention of relatives and friends of deceased officers and men who are buried in Virginia to the fact that attempts to remove the remains of such officers and men, when they had been buried less than a year, have in every instance proved impracticable from the condition in which they were found.

Dr. J. A. Davis of Chicago, a prominent physician, states that a rebel surgeon, who had for four years occupied the position of Assistant Medical Director of the Army of Northern Virginia, told him that Union prisoners in the rebel hospitals had been vaccinated with venereal matter, and that this accounted for the frightful sores on the bodies of so many of them.

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

[illegible] From representations made by Mr. Lillie, [illegible] to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 19th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible [illegible] enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in the fire, we found McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar, such as hard [illegible], their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the cloth [illegible] and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire [illegible] no better than ours.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servants,

(Signed) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Private Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, Clare Place, Poets Lock, Harrow road; St. Luke's, Old street; University, Gower st.; Westminster, Royal Sanctuary, Charing Cross, Agar street, Strand; London, Whitechapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Doctors Acton of London, Parker of Birmingham, England; and Ricord of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases.

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and shrunken faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage [illegible] In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. It therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, [illegible] either in person or by letter [illegible] by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfaction [illegible] of this complaint by either [illegible]

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, to Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with brazen effrontery, trap the unwary. Some of the so-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco, are tradesmen, and becoming too lazy to work at their trades. Some are consulting shoemakers, newspaper agents, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their [illegible] but you will find their former [illegible] Look at the Directories for 1862 and 1863 [illegible] and may save you many [illegible] advertising physicians eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Doctor Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients, letters, etc. Doctor Gibbon will cure all persons who may call at his offices [illegible]
